

Software License Agreement

Before using the "Group Controller Series4 PCMONITOR" (hereinafter referred to as "this software"), thoroughly read this software license agreement (hereinafter referred to as "this agreement"). By using or installing this software wholly or in part, you (hereinafter referred to as the "user") agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement. If you do not agree to the terms of this agreement, do not use or install this software but return this software to the dealer.

1. The term "this software", as used in this agreement, refers to the computer program distributed in the form of a recording medium or a file together with this agreement, as well as the related information and data (including but not limited to electronic documents). Any information or data that is explicitly indicated not to be included in this software is excluded.
2. Toshiba Carrier Corporation retains the ownership and all intellectual property rights to this software. The user may use this software only in accordance with the terms of this agreement and may use it only for the purposes specified by Toshiba Carrier Corporation or the purposes agreed on by Toshiba Carrier Corporation and the user.
3. The copyright to this software belongs to Toshiba Carrier Corporation. This software is protected by laws and regulations related to copyright and international treaties.
4. The user may reproduce and install this software for the purposes mentioned in the documents related to this software. The user shall discard copies of this software created by the user immediately if they are no longer necessary. Except in the case above, the user may not reproduce this software.
5. The user may not reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, or alter this software.
6. The user may not place this software in such a state in which it can be used by multiple users through a computer network or the Internet.
7. The user may not distribute, transfer, lend, lease, or sell this software or the license to any person, and may not sublicense this software to any person.
8. The user shall respect the intellectual property rights to this software. The user shall acknowledge that this software is confidential information and shall agree to preventing this software from disclosure to a third party.
9. The user shall abide by the "Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act" and the applicable laws and regulations related to export control. The user shall also abide by the US export control law and code of practice, as well as the export-related laws and regulations of all related countries. Read through this software license agreement and agree to the terms of the agreement before using this application.
10. This software is licensed "as is", with no warranty expressed or implied. Toshiba Carrier Corporation also disclaims any implied guarantee of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose. Toshiba Carrier Corporation shall assume no guarantee or liability for the quality and performance of this software. Toshiba Carrier Corporation shall assume no liability for any damage, loss, obligation, or cost caused to the user in connection with or as a result of the use of this software.
11. If the user violates any of the provisions of this agreement or if the user cancels this agreement, the user shall immediately uninstall and discard this software and/or return the recording medium and file of this software (including any reproductions left on hand) to Toshiba Carrier Corporation.
12. Toshiba Carrier Corporation reserves the right to request the user to stop the use of this software at any time by issuing a notice to the user. Toshiba Carrier Corporation also reserves the right to modify or improve this software at any time.
13. This agreement is governed by the laws of Japan (except rules for selecting applicable law) and shall be construed in accordance with the laws of Japan.
14. Devices using this software cannot be connected to the Internet. Never connect it to the Internet. We shall assume no liability for any problems caused by connecting it to the Internet. It can be connected only to a local area network.
